

Beyond Paris: Financing and Implementing Climate Change Commitments

Austrian Climate Change Workshop

Date: 30-31 March, 2017

Venue: Kommunalkredit Public Consulting, 1092 Vienna, Türkenstrasse 9, Austria

Introducing the Event

This annually-held event aims at fostering knowledge-sharing and discussion on key climate change issues aimed at contributing to low-carbon development and climate resilience on a global scale. It will be carried out in a conference-style setting with international high-level speakers from both the public and the private sector presenting in sessions structured around the following main topics:

- Status and future direction of international climate change policies, based on the outcomes from COP 22 in Marrakesh and complemented by the UN Sustainable Development Goals with regards to climate resilience, low-carbon development, climate finance and cross-cutting issues,
- Scaling-up financing for climate change adaptation and mitigation, presenting lessons learnt, strategies for scaling-up as well as new initiatives led by development finance institutions that contribute to achieve national climate change action plans and involve the private sector,
- City-wide initiatives aiming at maximizing environmental, economic and social benefits in line with local priorities, tailored to budgets and based on thorough stakeholder dialogue,
- Greening of the financial system, outlining the risks, challenges and opportunities for channeling investments into climate-friendly assets and presenting ways for bridging between institutional investors and asset developers.

Join us in Vienna!

The event will be carried out at Kommunalkredit Group's conference facilities close to Vienna's city center for a limited number of participants on a first-come, first serve-basis.
